

Brandon Brawner

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT | BROKERAGE

Brandon Brawner serves in the role of Assistant Vice President of Brokerage, with a focus on tenant and landlord representation. Prior to joining The Retail Connection, he spent the previous 9 years in NYC providing advisory & delivery services to clients in the Financial Services Industry — primarily focused within the credit card space.

Since joining The Retail Connection, Brawner has specialized in tenant representation and project leasing. He represents both national retailers as well as regional concepts including Mattress Firm, Dunkin' Donuts, Amazon Pickup, Outlaw Bootcamp, and Tapout Fitness, among others. From a project leasing perspective, he has handled assignments in almost all core trade areas in DFW and has been privileged to work with landlords and developers such as Inland America, Agree Realty, The Retail Connection Connected Development Services, and Alliance Residential Company.

Outside the office place, Brawner maintains an active role in the real estate community as exemplified by his involvement in International Council of Shopping Centers [ICSC], Next Generation, Retail Deal Makers and NTCAR. His hobbies include playing golf, fishing and attending live music events.

He received a Management Information Systems degree from Texas Tech University.
