

Emma Fortier

ADMINISTRATIVE PROFESSIONAL | BROKERAGE

Emma Fortier is currently a key administrative professional at The Retail Connection, providing crucial support to brokerage and advisory executives. Her exceptional communication skills, both written and verbal, facilitate effective collaboration with colleagues and clients at all levels. She consistently strives to foster a positive and productive workplace atmosphere, promoting teamwork and a culture of excellence.

Before coming to TRC, Emma was a real estate agent at Monument Realty, marked by her instrumental role in navigating complex real estate transactions. Her responsibilities included property sales, negotiations, market analysis, and client relations. Her expertise consistently led to successful outcomes, instilling confidence in her abilities.

She also served as the store manager at ALZuni Texas Gallery, overseeing sales, inventory management, and customer service. Her hard work and dedication led to high client satisfaction and repeat business. Emma's commitment to continuous learning and professional development is a testament to her adaptability and growth mindset. She stays current with industry trends and best practices, further underscoring her qualifications and dedication to the administrative profession.

Emma loves spending time with friends and family, participating in outdoor activities with a touch of friendly competition, and traveling has always been a passion of hers.
