Lana Constantine

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT | BROKERAGE

Lana Constantine is an Assistant Vice President at The Retail Connection, specializing in tenant representation, project leasing, land sales, and investment sales throughout North Texas. Drawing on her institutional finance background, she brings a strategic, investment-oriented approach to site selection, development, leasing, and asset positioning.

Lana represents a growing portfolio of retail and restaurant concepts, including Forbes House, Escape 360 Specialty Coffee & Café, Manny's Mexican Kitchen, and Arwa Coffee. Her landlord advisory relationships include Billingsley Company, Rise Commercial, Victron Energy, and xForge, with assignments spanning high-profile mixed-use developments, shopping centers, and ground-up projects, including Cypress Waters and Sloan Corners. She advises clients on merchandising strategy, tenant mix, ground leases, land dispositions, and investment sales.

Lana also serves on the Texas and Oklahoma Board of Arvest Bank and is involved in the bank's strategic real estate expansion across the Dallas-Fort Worth market, advising on market selection, site identification, and its planned branch rollout.

Prior to joining The Retail Connection, Lana held senior roles at JPMorgan and Citigroup, overseeing cross-asset derivatives and structured products businesses and leading technology initiatives supporting global financial operations. Her extensive financial background provides a unique perspective on real estate investments and complex transactions.

A Dallas native and graduate of The Hockaday School, Lana earned her bachelor's degree in Finance from New York University, graduating magna cum laude and receiving the Founders Day Award. She has also been actively involved in Dallas charitable organizations through fundraising and development efforts.

Lana lives in Dallas with her two children and enjoys traveling, tennis, mahjong, art, and entertaining.
