Heritage Creekside is a mixed-use community in Plano, designed to blend vibrant hospitality, retail, and entertainment spaces with natural elements that offer a refreshing escape from the everyday. At Heritage Creekside, life flows naturally - a community of over 2,000 homes, walkable streets, and unique gathering places that invite people to people to slow down and connect.

Thanks to its central location at the crossroads of Plano, North Dallas, and the Collin County suburbs, Heritage Creekside's draws people from all directions - whether it's a brunch with friends, a morning workout, or al fresco dinners overlooking the fully restored Pittman Creek.

Heritage Creekside is where the best parts of life comes together – where connection feels natural, and everything flows like it should.
